

“The substantial investment in housing infrastructure is anticipated to stimulate economic growth and bring about a positive change in the lives of numerous families. The government's dedication to narrowing the housing gap is commendable, reflecting a robust effort to promote comprehensive development,” pointed out Pratik Kataria, director, Sainath Developers - The House of Kataria, and committee member, NAREDCO Maharashtra.